TILDEN'S INCOME.

New York Sept 21.—The following letter has been sent by Abram S Hewitt, chairman of the National Democratic Committee

To the Public—The New York Times which for merly was a warm friend of Tilden has made serious assaults of late on his character which assaults culminate in a charge of perjury calculated to disturb some persons and to cause the writer to apply to the treasury for certified copies of the income returns of Tilden and Hayes These copies have no been furnished but his letter has been noticed though the adversaries have had five days access to these returns and have photographed them therefore wrote to Judge Stanton Tilden's confidential law clerk during the whole period in dispute asking him to examine the pretended account of Tilden's income in 1864 publish by the Times and to furnish him (Beach) with an explanation Stanton's reply had been received and presented a satisfactory refutation of the Times charges The answer shows that out of 17 pretended items of income amounting to $110 000 11 items of $64 000 are wholly fictitious while of the other two one of $1 100 is entirely true and the second of $2 000 is only partially true There is therefore no ground for the assertions of inaccuracy of Tilden s sworn statement

Mr Stanton's statement to which Hewitt alludes after remarking that he (Stanton) is perfectly familiar with the details of Tilden's business declares the Times statement false in every particular and evidently intended to mislead For example the first item February 19th 56c for trustees and master commissioner's deed but the wording of the second item is made differently and reads February 25th fees and expenses with reference to deed etc and the third item is put in another different mode of expression thus March 1st for deed etc mortgage deed while in the fourth item the word fees and the first without expenses is be ught into requisition The obvious intention of the contrivance is to give color to these bogus items and the appearance of being copied from the real paper Concerning Tilden s connection with the Pittsburgh Fort Wayne and Chicago road Stanton declares that the first six items of the Times statement are about points which never existed and Tilden never made any special charge of them against any individual or corporation Tilden became counsel for the bondholders of that road in 1859 and worked assiduously until 1862.

Stanton's Statement.

Stanton s plea for his client in law effect not guilty with extenuating circumstances It seals the aged pettifogger s fate Tilden s frauds and perjury have merited the contempt of all honest men and they will show it in his overwhelming defeat at the polls He labored especially hard in 1860-61 during the foreclosure proceedings In October 1861 the road was sold and the transfer took place which necessitated harmonizing the interests of bondholders in nine classes and in four different States Tilden s work was constant and engrossing and concluded before the close of the year 1861 He did not make any itemized bill The income tax went into effect January 1st 1862 The income which had accrued before this time was exempt from a tax of operation Stanton says he does not consider it necessary to argue that this amount was not taxable but cites authorities to sustain the view He cites 12 items from the Times statement examining them and seeking to show they have been distorted by Tilden s enemies before being scrutized The only item he says which is correct is that of the salary, of $6 000 as president of the Balance Dock Co But no deductions as unqualified) false the allegation originally made that Tilden received from the City $40 000 and Ferry Station $12,000 in first mortgage bonds during 1862 and quotes a public print on the subject to show that these bonds were not used up to 1864 and that in 1870 they were still in the hands of the pe chasing committee consequently could not have formed part of Tilden s income He says of the sworn statement The simple fact is the amounts returned were the net result of income after taking out lawful deductions For me it only remains to assert that every fact within my knowledge confirms the good faith and truthfulness of the returns, which I have refused by the handwrit of one who for more than a generation had lived a life so pure and blameless that the breath of calumny had failed to touch him until by the general voice of a great party he had been made their candidate for the highest place in the gift of the people.'

In respect to the allegation that after two years of income tax Mr Tilden made an return but left the portion of his tax which was in excess of pay ment for his account made by corporations whose profits and stock he held to be paid by them at law, by the estimate of public officers the answer is simple. The statute gave the taxpayers the option to take that course and good and honorable reasons existed why a scrupulous man should accept that option Nearly all his income from investments paid a tax through the dividends of bonds and stocks he held without allowance for lawful deductions He believed at the time that instead of paying less he offener paid more than would have been the case if he had not trouble some accounting He preferred in that way to be exempted from the difficulties incident to attempting a specific statement of affairs in which he was interested and of corporations and business in which he was an investor Also to be exempted from the unavoidable liability of adjudicating on fictitious and law applicable to uncertain and fluctuating elements. During the rapid and violent changes of fictitious values, the law was unsettled questions of real liability existed constructions were set up by official which were often conflicting unintelligible or impracticable of just or safe application and it was not agreeable to make a return on a doubtful or disputed theory or in contradiction to even unmeritorious claims made in behalf of the government.

Tilden's Statement Reviewed.

New York Sept 21—The Commercial Advertiser says Six weeks ago a grave accusation was made against Tilden that he had defrauded the government in matter of his income tax and concealed it by perjury The Democratic organs made light of the charge and Tilden closed his lips and refused to speak on the subject But the people took it up and will overwhelm among millions who that no perjurer should be elected President When news of this determination met the Great Reformer honest for his former law clerk before whom he had been used to make his affidavits and whose service he had rewarded by a judgeship in the Marines court, in the teeth of remonstrances from the more respectable portion of the bar To this man he dictated his answer and after days of pondering and study it now lies before the people a transparent tissue of evasion and trickery As a pettifogger Tilden has heretofore been a success but for the methods of the shyster which betray the reformed ring robber whose object is to reform only the popular sight Is exceedingly keen in this It will prove beneficial reminding them and the country that all was not vain that they suffered so much for the preservation and perpetuation of the united Government (Signed) U S GRANT

After the reading Gen Walter Harrison of New Hampshire was introduced and spoke at some length upon the occasion The cool remarks were persistent calls for Col Ingersoll of Illinois who had reached the speakers stand He then spoke for an hour and a quarter apparently to the great satisfaction of the audience His speech is the subject of much favorable comment to night

Gen Hittle of Iowa then spoke also Gen Kilpatrick of New Jersey and Gen J C Robinson of New York up to 9 o clock when the convention adjourned

To night before dark the people began assembling along the line of march designated for the torchlight procession the streets in the central part of the city especially being densely packed with surging crowds who cheered the different companies passing to the general rendezvous Many halls and other buildings along the line were handsomely illuminated The procession moved at 8 P M and was in size about the same as the day parade The Ohio delegation in a meeting here to day, voted to hold a veteran soldiers reunion at Cleveland on October 3d

The Democrats Emulate the Republicans

A grand Democratic mass State convention of Union soldiers and citizens is announced to be held in this city October 5th for the ratification of the nomination of Tilden and Hendricks and to express their appreciation of the work of the late session of the Democratic House of Representatives and especially to thank them for their efforts to equalize the bounties of the soldiers All Union soldiers in [illegible] and other States are invited in the name of Tilden and a large number of officers of the Union army to appear among the list of those especially invited.

Political Situation in Spain

LONDON Sept 21—Reuter's telegraph company received the following summary of the situation in Spain A strenuous effort is being made to oust Senor Canovas Del Castillo, prime minister Three courts exist at present namely Karg Alfonso sex Queen Christ ina the latter supported by remaining partisans of Marshal Parnico and ex Queen Isabella s court at Santander The latter is like by intriguing She is principally influenced by the clergy but in a lesser degree by Senor Segasta Marshal Serrano and Mont Novatches It is believed the latter would not hesitate to adhere to the policy of religious intolerance rather than see the abdication of Isabella In addition has distributed portraits of herself and children to all Generals now absent at the object of both Christians and Isabellas in Cuba is to secure the restitution of their property by the Spanish treasury This claim respectively forty millions and thirty six millions Senor Canovas Del Castillo positively refuses these demands A member of the party now in power recently expressed the opinion that the object of the coalition clause in the constitution was merely to give satisfaction abroad but the government would not allow a non Catholic creed to attempt to establish itself in Spain In this connection a Madrid telegram states that the government has approved the conduct of the Prefect of Valladolid who forbade the sale of Protestant Bibles in the streets

The Daily Oregonian.

MORNING SEPT 22 1876

MR TILDEN'S STATEMENT TO-DAY.

The long-expected explanation of the income returns of Mr Tilden has at last appeared, but in a way that makes it very unsatisfactory What was eagerly looked for by the people was Mr Tilden's statement, not somebody else's for him Mr Tilden, apparently does not intend to make any such statement himself and the conviction grows more and more fixed in the public mind that the reason why he will not is the simple one that he can not

The effort of Judge Sinnott is more ingenious than plausible and more plausible than convincing, Take the way in which he attempts to explain why Gov Tilden has been making no income return at all for a first year—the only reason given for which is that it was too troublesome to make one, that he had so many sources of income; that it would take so long to detail all his bonds, shares mortgages, securities, leases, speculations and what not, that he preferred to take the chance of overpaying (with the liability of underpaying) rather than make a proper return It don't usually take a man who has ordinary business habits to state the items of a seven thousand dollar income and not much longer when that income swells to seven thousand one hundred and eighteen dollars It don't look so long to make a statement of Mr Tilden's property, it is hard to believe it did not yield more than seven thousand one hundred and eighteen dollars Now this is just what Mr Sinnott tells us Mr Tilden had, so much property he could not spare time to reckon it up, and yet it only yielded an income of seven thousand one hundred and eighteen dollars The statement is decidedly too thin

RUSSIA'S INFLUENCE IN SERVIA

The influence of Russia in the conduct of the war as far as Servia is concerned is blunt. Whether Prince Milan has any understanding with the Czar can of course, be known, but if he has the position as the ostensible ruler of Servia is anything else than enviable Tchernaeff openly laughs at the idea of an armistice, and boldly declares his intention to attack the Turks whenever he can strike them unawares, notwithstanding the agreement of the Servian government to the armistice This would not dare to do were he not supported by some concealed power strong enough to protect him from the consequences of his disobedience What that power is, may be inferred from the aid given him by Russia in money and the presence in his camp of Russian officers It is true that the Russian officials have protested against the proclamation of Prince Milan as King, and have refused to own and again signified their desire to make peace between Servia and Turkey but the Russian code of diplomacy is identical with that expounded by Machiavelli, and the ministers of the Court of St Petersburg are thoroughly imbued with the idea that language is given to conceal thought and intention, rather than to reveal them It can hardly be doubted that Russia would be sorry to see friendly relations re-established between Servia and Turkey She evidently believes that the time has come when her long-cherished purpose can be carried out successfully, and the knowledge of the present state of feeling in England strengthens this belief until it has grown into a conviction. This is why she is using all the arts, in which her agents are well skilled, of diplomacy, to incite the Servians to new acts of hostility to delude the Turks and to hide her real intention from the other great powers Thus far she has been eminently successful whether she will continue to be so until her end is attained is a matter which the events of a very few more weeks will determine.

Contrary to the expectations of the unterrified, who expected to have swept the field and reposed on their laurels long ago no election has yet been held of United States Senator by the Legislature Four ballots have thus far been taken without any other result than to indicate that Gov Grover's strength is falling. In the first ballot Gov Grover lacked but one of an election—since then he has lost ground, and in the last ballot he wanted three of a majority The contest will be renewed to-day, when, it is to be hoped a choice will be effected and the legislative business of the House and Senate proceed.

The Republican Convention in Washington County has nominated Hon Orange Jacobs for the Republican candidate for election as Joint Senator to Congress Judge Jacobs has just served a term as Delegate, and this endorsement of his conduct is a well merited compliment In all probability he will be elected and if so, the people of Washington may be assured that their interests will be well cared for

Lord Beaconsfield's speech at Aylesbury is such as to convey the idea that the writer fears the downfall of his administration There is a little of the vigor of the late Disraeli in the noble Lord's denunciation of his old rival Gladstone whom he accuses of taking advantage of popular sentiment to attempt to get back into power

What the country wants is not a man who will endeavor to devise an evasion of law but a man who is too high minded to be guilty of such a thing The commonplace honesty and straightforwardness of Governor Hayes are preferable to the brilliant cunning and calculating knavery of Tilden

Whatever may be the truth about the income tax returns Mr Tilden is a great deal too smart to say anything about them himself He would be bound by what he said but is not bound by what his friends say

WARREN FIELDER STATE SENATOR—Full official returns from Clatsop Columbia and Tillamook counties show the election of Mr Warren to be Joint Senator from those counties by twelve majority over his competitor

The managers of the Democratic party have determined to effect the reunion of the Boys in Blue with a reunion of soldiers and sailors in the interest of Tilden

Four of the robbers engaged in the North Bend "robbery" have been captured after a distance in which one of them was wounded

WHAT IS THE DUTY OF REPUBLICANS!

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The Democrats appear to be in great tribulation about a Senator The two wings of the Democratic party one known as the Bedrockers or those who sympathized with the South are making great efforts to elect Gov Grover The other wing known as the War Democrats or Douglas Democrats are equally anxious for the election of Hon J W Nesmith If it be a foregone conclusion that no Republican can be elected then in that case what is it our duty as loyal Union men to do? Shall we select the man nearest our own views one who stood by the country in the hour of its greatest need and through its greatest trials, or shall we select a man who will always go with his party right or wrong inside the Union or outside of it? Mr Editor—I do not wish to disparage Gov Grover or say that I agree with Mr Nesmith in some of his political record yet I cannot forget that he did much to strengthen Mr Lincoln's hands in the days when it tried men's souls It may be easy to manipulate a caucus and beat such a man in the Democratic party but is it generous to ignore such services? We doubt not that there are men in the Republican party who have their little grievances, and for these would oppose Mr Nesmith others from some cause, may dislike Governor Grover The question with the people is who can we trust under all circumstances, to do right? If secession raises its head again or presents its exorbitant claims for losses during the war who can we trust to protect our interests and fight all such unjust claims? If there is one who has been tried and found faithful should we not have a choice, should we neglect to throw our influence for the man in our judgment best suited to the exigencies of the times? As between the candidates I could not hesitate to make a choice As one of the old guard I humbly submit this question to our Republican friends, as well as to the people at large By giving this a place in your columns you will oblige AN OLD REPUBLICAN

The following is a portion of the testimony presented at the inquest over the body of Putnam [illegible] who was killed in a prize fight by James Weeden It was a very solemn occasion and the witness, no doubt, was very much in earnest, but Nasby could hardly have written anything more ludicrous than the simple Jerseyman's testimony

John Kires, sebruff of Salem county, was the next witness He said

A messenger came to my house on Thursday morning and told me that a prize fight was about to take place at Pennsville I hitched my horse and drive for the place saw a lot of men there near to a large tree, I identified a lot of Jerseymen that they might be wanted and then I placed myself on a large stool and looked at them for a little while and then, says I, gentlemen, by the authority vested in me by the State of New Jersey as sheriff of the county of Salem I comand you peaceably to get out of here They said Oh my, and pull down your vest which I didn't do The most of them though ran away I went afterwards to the wharf and locked the Creolmore cutter but they came down and took her away I forbid them doing it, but they didn't seem to care what I said. They struck me with a piece of bologna sausage on the nose, and hredia bolt at my head I saw no canteloupes or watermelons in the air I attempted the arrest of one man, but he got away from me he was the fellow that carried the belts and sponges No one was shot on my side but one man had a bullet got through the leg of his panties I leaned up against a pork barrel, and they riddled it with bullets I fired two shots at them

RUPTURE!

No More Metallic Trusses Used!

No More Suffering from Iron Hoops or Steel Springs!

THE SUPERIORITY OF OUR ELASTIC Trusses over the rigid Iron Hoops which in former days were the only resource of the ruptured admits of NO ARGUMENT

By means of this appliance the pressure on the Rupture itself can be made until ran and continuous and to the extent required In each case until a slight inflammation of the parts is secured and the consequent effusion of lymph which is essential to a healing process and from this time to the conclusion of the treatment the pressure being entirely within the control of the patient can be lessened daily as the adhesion progresses and the body becomes sound All cases of reducible Hernia are permanently relieved without regard to the age of the patient or the duration of the injury while in fact in all the cases that has characterized the treatment of the malady with former Metal Trusses from the earliest age to the present day Your attention is called to the following facts

1st—There are no springs to press upon or to injure the back.

2d—It is simple in construction and not liable to get out of order

3d—This Instrument is worn with perfect ease while riding horseback

4th—The Rupture is retained and the pressure the same while in any position

5th—It has none of the injurious results of metallic Trusses

6th—It will perform radical cures when all others fail

7th—It is worn with ease and comfort night and day which cannot be said truthfully of an metal Truss whatever

Experience shows that all to opered spring Trusses necessarily press upon and often disease parts of the body that before were in a perfectly healthy condition Lumbago and other equally distressing ailments are not unfrequently the result of such pressure and in view of this fact it becomes a matter of decided consequence to avoid like calamities if possible

Examination Free. The closest scrutiny of physicians solicited

BRIEF NOTES.

Mail from the East light last evening.

Portland is still without a city assessor.

Washington County Fair next Monday.

The Senatorial fight is still the engrossing topic of the hour.

Adjourned meeting of the board of trade to-morrow evening.

Special meeting of the Common Council to-morrow evening.

First street between Main and Madison is in a terrible condition.

Wm. Curll is route agent on the O. & C. R. R. in place of F. D. Thorn.

Q. Voss, who was formerly a resident of this city, returned on the last steamer.

I. R. Bow, formerly in Central Market is now engaged in business in Baraboo, Wis.

Are our ball clubs going to enter for the prizes at the State Fair? We await an answer.

The O. & C. R. R. ferry boat was pulled off the ways Wednesday afternoon by the steamer Fairchance.

F. C. Comegys, Esq., agent for the Oregonian, has our thanks for numerous favors thankfully received.

George Lamberson and Harry P. Talbot returned Wednesday evening after two months' absence in Southern Oregon.

Regular meeting of the Hayes and Wheeler club at Oro Fino Theater to-morrow evening. A rousing meeting is anticipated.

The monthly concert of the Hall street M. E. Sunday school will be held next Sunday at 2.30 P. M. The children who are to take part in the exercises are requested to meet at the church on Saturday at 3 P. M.

A residence near the Congregational Church was burglarized a few nights ago of some articles, rings, a watch and other valuables. An entrance was effected by removing the lock of a rear door. No clue to the burglars.

A Chinaman engaged in the tub factory at Oregon City had two fingers sawed off yesterday, and was so frightened that he would have run away had not Mr. Clarke the foreman held him until the arrival of the doctor who had been sent for to dress his wounds.

FANCY COSTUME COFFEE PARTY.

Last evening Masonic Hall was the scene of a busy and pleasant assemblage. The Women's Guild of Trinity Parish held a festival there in aid of the rectory fund. There was an abundance of good things to eat including coffee, which would tempt an anchorite and Maryland biscuit worthy of the plastic skill of Aunt Dinah of the ante emancipation days. The cafe was a graceful arbor in the middle of the hall, where beautiful young wood nymphs served the delightful decoction to guests who appeared only too glad of the opportunity to convert their solid silver into the fluid extract of mocha. The sales tables were covered with the usual pretty and useful things of the Guild's handiwork, besides some handsome articles of vertu and otherwise presented by their good friends about town. The scene was enlivened with some excellent music. The feature of the evening was the young misses and lads in costume. There were at least twenty of them, and it is no exaggeration to say that there was never before as many handsome, uncommon and becoming costumes assembled on one floor in Portland. By all means let them be photographed for future reference and delight, and be sure that the little Marchioness and the Gentle Shepherdess are well in the foreground. Col. W. at the request of the ladies read a colored dialogue upon the subject of Gomorrah and Lot's wife, which sounded like one to the manor born. The theology of it, however, we will not vouch for.

On the whole the affair was a very pleasant one, and, we understand, reasonably profitable. The ladies wish to return their thanks for the patronage of their friends and to say they will be happy to see all the world and the rest of mankind at lunch to-morrow from 12 o'clock onward. Having by the kindness of the committee tasted liberally of the bill of fare, we can vouch for it both as to quantity and quality.

TEST OF HAND ENGINES.

We republish the following rules governing the trial of hand fire engines, to come off at the coming State Fair:

First. The contesting engine must be on the ground promptly at the time designated by the society's programme.

Second. Companies to play through 150 feet of 2½ inch hose, can use any nozzle desired, but none except members of the company will be allowed to work upon the brakes.

The engine throwing solid water the greatest distance will be declared the winner of the first premium.

Ten minutes will be allowed to each engine after time is called for work.

The second premium to be awarded to the company starting at a given signal running one fourth of a mile (with engine and hose cart), stretching 300 feet of hose and playing 100 feet of solid water in the shortest time. None but members of the company allowed to work.

Any company attempting to win a prize by fraud will forfeit all claim to the premiums.

The prizes are for the best drilled equipped and uniformed hand fire engine company, $150; second best, $100.

THE COURTS.

COUNTY COURT IN VACATION.—WOODWARD, J.

THURSDAY, Sept. 21, 1876.

In the matter of the estate of Sarah J. Meagher, deceased, the administrators this day filed an inventory and appraisement of the property of said estate, from which it appears the personal property of said estate was appraised at $354 50, and the real estate to wit: lot 4 in block 146 in the city of Portland at $1,750, making in the aggregate $1,804 50; and inasmuch as the value of the personal property is too small to warrant a public sale thereof, it is ordered by said court that the administrators sell the same at private sale for cash in hand.

On petition of the administratrix of the estate of H. B. Morrill, deceased, an order was entered for the sale of all personal property except the furniture in his late residence.

Under head of reports of committees the special committee on revision of the constitution submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That we strike out section 2 and insert in its place "The meetings of this Union shall be held at such time and place as the President shall designate in his call."

Amended to read in the last clause "by and with the advice of the executive committee," and the resolution was then passed.

On motion voted that the action of the Union last night in deciding to hold a public meeting to night be reconsidered, and on the question being again put it was voted not to have a meeting.

Committee on resolutions received a number of resolutions which were acted upon separately and passed as a whole. The following resolution was also passed:

Resolved, That since the women of our State are the greatest sufferers from the liquor traffic, are taxed to repair the damages resulting therefrom, and governed without any participation and consent, and since this is tyranny and since the ballot must be ultimately used for its suppression, the question of its prohibition should be submitted to all adult citizens of the State irrespective of sex.

Hon. G. W. Dimick offered the following preamble and resolutions which were adopted:

WHEREAS, Drunkenness and all of the attendant evils thereof are the direct results the never failing fruits of legalized traffic in intoxicating liquor, therefore

Resolved, That the members of the State Temperance Union deeply deplore the degrading and debasing influence of said traffic both upon public morals and the general good of our State, and we therefore call upon all lovers of society to unite with us in an unceasing warfare upon this giant evil.

The following resolution was offered and adopted:

Resolved, That the president and directors of this Union be instructed to confer with the president and executive committee of the Oregon State Temperance Alliance in regard to the expediency of uniting the two organizations, merging the Union into the Alliance upon the most favorable terms possible.

On motion of C. H. Walker a vote of thanks was returned to the O. & C. R. R. Co. for a reduction of fares.

Voted to draw an order on the treasurer for the sum of $8 in favor of C. A. Reed for use of hall.

On motion adjourned sine die.

A TESTIMONIAL.

MRS. S. LORD—Dear Madam: I commenced using your Hair Producer about five months ago, my hair being thin and falling out rapidly, accompanied with an intense itching of scalp. Shortly after I commenced using your preparations the itching ceased entirely, and the hair stopped coming out and having used the remedy according to directions, my hair is growing thick and strong with every prospect of being fully restored. Yours truly,

OUR SALEM LETTER.

SALEM, Sept. 20, 1876.

Sandwiching the Senatorial fight is a proposed wedding, in high life, announced to take place to-morrow, Thursday evening, at the suburban residence of a highly esteemed citizen. The prospective bride, a favorite with a large circle of friends and acquaintances, changes not her name or nature by assuming the marriage vow, and is in every way Emma-nently qualified to become a loving, faithful wife. The groom, a Frank-ly, open-hearted young man, occupies a position as bookkeeper in a leading dry goods establishment, and in addition to the pleasant ceremonies we wish them abundant prosperity. The wedding promises to be a brilliant affair, and the gifts numerous and costly.

CAPITAL NOTES.

Councilmen were refreshed greatly yesterday and to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Cole of this city have started overland for California on their own private conveyance.

Thirty-two bills have already been introduced in the Senate. At this rate business will brisk up before the close of the session.

Postmaster Cole of your city is in Salem watching the Senatorial fight. He is also Judge Denny and at least forty-seven others.

Samuel Parker announces himself as a candidate for State Librarian by circulating cards among the members. He says he cannot help but be can think etc.

Numerous candidates for clerkships having "got left" have returned home sadder but wiser men.

Cyrus Woolworth is message boy for the Western Union Telegraph office of this city.

Orville Baker is filling the position of messenger between the capitol building and the state printing office.

The State printers are kept busily engaged night and day in printing Senate and House bills as fast as they are introduced.

The refusal of the Senate to concur in the House amendments to the Centennial fruit bill will make it necessary for the latter body to recede. Some of our legislators are certainly penny wise and pound foolish.

The Alka Society will take charge of the Willamette College Jean during the ensuing year.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Morris is announced to preach in the Episcopal church of this city Sunday next.

The Presbyterian church justly claims the best choir in the city.

The official result of the vote of Columbia county for the election of a joint State senator, which was mailed on Monday last has not up to the present time been made known. Its non appearance prevents Mr. Watson from taking his seat in the Senate, its whereabouts is a cause of wonderment among his friends and Republicans generally.

The city council estimates the cost of a bridge across the Willamette at this point at $30,000 and recommends petitioning the legislature to amend the city charter allowing the city to incur that indebtedness for that special purpose.

Montgomery Queen's circus is advertised to appear in this city on Friday next the 22d inst. They are very heavily billed.

The State Temperance Union is now in session in this city, is hard up to the standard in either life or membership.

The third horse has become somewhat demoralized but it may recuperate before the session is over.

The Senatorial contest and Isaac Blum's cigars create unusual excitement in Salem and are almost the sole topics of discussion there.

To enjoy a pleasant evening, visit the Fountain, presided over by Peter Wilhelm Sohn, but the best liquors, wines and beer. The celebrated Brunswick, Blake & Co.'s billiard and pool tables.

Call on M. Rosenblatt, 79 Front street for men and boys' clothing. A large stock of fall and winter styles just received by the John L. Stephens. No better goods in the market.

The fall and winter styles of fashionable silk hats are now introduced at Currier & Co.'s. The best quality will be made to order for $9. Latest styles of felt hats by every steamer.

The perfect points of all first class machines are combined in the make up of the No. 8 Wheeler & Wilson. All who have examined it recommend it as the best now in use.

We would not recommend the frequent or constant use of any medicine. It is important to take even a good article occasionally. Parson's Purgative Pills are safe, prompt and reliable as a laxative or cathartic.

Base ball is undoubtedly good exercise and capital amusement but it often occasions bunged eyes, broken skins and blistered hands. We can tell you that in all such cases if Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is resorted to it will reduce the swelling and stop the pain.

MY DEAR MADAM: try GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP and you will find it a far more effective beautifier than any cosmetic. It promotes a healthy circulation in the vessels of the skin and keeps the pores open, the only legitimate modes of overcoming complexional defects.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM preserves and restores the complexion, removes freckles, tan and sallowness, makes the skin soft, white and delicate. Its application cannot be detected.

II. " " " "

CYRUS NOBLE DISTILLERY, 1st Dist., O.

CINCINNATI, April 1, 1876.

Messrs. LIEBENTHAL & CO.

Gentlemen—I have just returned from a trip through Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia, undertaken for the purpose of examining the various distilleries in those districts, and I am now more than ever confirmed in the opinion, so often expressed to you, that your distillery is the most complete and best conducted of any in the United States.

The careful selection of your grain, the purity of the water, the slower and more cautious method of distillation is what gives the NOBLE WHISKY its superior qualities, and has gained for it the reputation which it universally sustains throughout the United States.

Gratified that the 20 years' devoted to the distillation of the CYRUS NOBLE WHISKY has been attended with such happy results, I trust I may be spared to continue my labors in its interest, and that of its many patrons and consumers.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours faithfully,
CYRUS NOBLE.

TO THE PUBLIC.—These testimonials to our Cyrus Noble Whisky has enjoyed the highest practice throughout the East and Europe for a period of nearly 25 years, and prompts us to bring it to the notice of the Public of the Pacific Coast for similar use.

Its absolute purity, having by analysis been found to be entirely free from FUSEL OIL, and the improved quality imparted to it by its being retained in store for at least 5 to 6 years after distillation, has given to the Physician a remedy long sought for in his own Materia Medica.

The certificates we hold of its efficacy in the treatment of cases where NERVOUS PROSTRATION exists and vitality is at a low ebb, as is frequently observed in families in our country, of DYSPEPSIA in its whole train of Protean forms, of CONSUMPTION, of bleeding of the LIVER and the BLADDER, of CONSUMPTION, of blood [illegible], are indeed a relief to the afflicted victims, and of such a death, or blood [illegible], as in his own case he believes he owes it to our remedy, is the object to use [illegible] here.

Very truly,

THE WALLOWA INDIAN QUESTION.

PORTLAND, Sept 19, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Having observed the newspaper reports concerning the white settlement in the Wallowa valley, and the Indians' hostility, or rather dissatisfaction ostensibly relative thereto, I beg to offer a few suggestions at this time in regard to the matter. Gen. Howard is now at Washington and may endeavor to enforce upon the government a course of conduct in the future toward the whites and Indians relative to the Wallowa valley, which shall be very injurious to the whites. Gen. Howard, I have no doubt, intends well, but I think he is clearly and utterly mistaken as to the Indian character and as to the best mode of dealing with it. However, he has left the Wallowa valley controversy, seemingly with Col. Wood. I am apprehensive that the course being pursued will result in a serious difficulty. Not that the whites will be induced by the conduct of the government or the military to provoke any disturbance with the Indians, for I believe and hope they will always be on their guard over their own conduct as well as the Indians, as they will doubtless be if collisions in case of an Indian outbreak. But calling Indians together and talking with them and listening to their talk about their fathers' graves, and witnessing their lachrymal effusions over something of which the Indians themselves don't know anything, [illegible] them for and encourages them to [illegible] any chivalry that may become [illegible] and why shouldn't it? They suppose and are induced to believe that they have the ear of the government and military officials, and they are reckless of consequences; only they are a little afraid of government punishment ordinarily; but if they think the government is on their side, they are entirely reckless. There is but one way to deal with Indians; and this modus operandi they recognize and always conform to. It is to notify the Indians what is required of them and let them be informed that the government has the force and means to compel them to acquiesce.

The government has settled upon the policy of placing the Indians on reservations, and [illegible] with them about whether it would be wise, and [illegible] ies with them about their fathers and grandfathers are worse than [illegible] mode of dealing with them. By their customs and usages a horse is ordinarily [illegible] compensation for killing one of [illegible] That is not the white people's custom or laws relative to killing a person; but their reasoning tends to show that all this frenzy [illegible] proceeding that the whites who killed two Indians be given up to them, is only their means of extortion, as it were. From hearing of Gen. Howard's course in the [illegible] they have conformed their conduct accordingly, so as to get as great capital out of it as possible. The treatment which these Indians should receive is the same relatively [illegible] bestowed on the convicts in the penitentiary. Make the rules, regulations and [illegible] which it is supposed will be the best for [illegible] and then make them live up to [illegible] They will be very good Indians if they [illegible] have no alternative. But as to arguing, or cajoling, or persuading them to do [illegible] it is all [illegible] by simply pointing out to [illegible] to do [illegible] would be the most advantageous in the long run, I know of no attempt in [illegible] that has been successful with [illegible] and many that have been unsuccessful. [illegible] has a quick discerning character, [illegible] prone to do evil with the whites [illegible] been in council and he can drive a better bargain by talking very [illegible] to the white men than otherwise. He [illegible] too fond to persevere in any system of evil or good. Therefore, when the [illegible] any system of treatment [illegible] and adhere alone upon [illegible] daily superintendence of [illegible] regularly from day to day. However [illegible] may be adapted to the [illegible] to the Indian character, [illegible] of the Indian [illegible] upon the daily superintendence of [illegible]. And to [illegible] the governmental policy toward the wild Indian by what the chiefs and head men say in council, would be like [illegible] to the character of a notorious cut-throat by what he should himself tell him. It is a notorious fact that the chiefs and head men often say they can't control [illegible] men. And it is also quite well known that the chiefs, when there is a difficulty between Indians and whites, take sides quickly and promptly with their own kind. This is natural, but it only proves that the government must put itself in a situation to regulate, control and manage each and every Indian in [illegible]. Yours truly,

OBSERVER.

THE TERRITORIES.

Hon. R. S. Ireland, of Dayton, from 400 acres of wheat and barley, this year, raised [illegible] Thirty acres of this in wheat produced 70 bushels to the acre. It was new land broken up this year.

Two sailors of the ship Eldorado got into a row in which the second mate of the vessel was so badly injured that his life is despaired of. The men were arrested and held to await the result of the mate's injuries.

T. W. Ellis, [illegible] or at Mound prairie, Puget Sound district, recently met with a serious accident. First, his wife, by a fall from a horse, broke her arm; and secondly, while he was lifting in, loading a wagon, he ruptured himself [illegible], which has left him in a very dangerous condition.

Seattle is to have a new hotel. The furniture is from Portland which, exclusive of the [illegible] and table linen, will cost $6,000. The carpeting itself will be quite an item in the bill, 7,220 square feet of carpeting being required for two of the two upper floors. Mr. Jackson will run the house.

A man named G. W. Moore, aged over fifty years, while working in the Port Madison saw mill last week, was struck in the pit of the stomach with a piece of flying slab, and was so badly hurt that he died on Saturday. The old man had only begun to work in the mill half an hour before he received the fatal blow.

The following are the statistics of the Puget Sound and customs district for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1876: Value of imports, foreign, $67,331 25; value of exports, foreign, $561,251; lumber exported, foreign, 25,350,000 feet; vessels cleared during the year 422, tonnage, 195,-004 38; vessels entered, 467, tonnage, 214,-447 07.

Says the Seattle Tribune of the 20th: It is reported that one of the crew of the steamer Dakota was set ashore to-day at Port Townsend, stricken with smallpox, and that the disease is spreading at that place. Also that the barkentine Victor was forced to put back from the straits on account of one of the crew being exposed to that disease.

Says the Seattle Intelligencer: A. M. Becker arrived here last evening with 43 head of cattle and 15 head of horses, and another man brought over 15 head of horses, the largest number of fine horses that ever arrived here at any one time from the Yakima country. The road across the pass is in a terrible condition, especially around the head of the lake.

Among the horses now in training at the Winnemucca track, Silver City, for the coming races, John Catalow has Humboldt and Target; William Patterson has Jerry and Red Dollar; L. M. Morse has Greeley and Gray Eagle; L. L. Rickard has Doc Weldon and Nellie Reed; G. W. Hinkey has May Belmont, O'Neal and Middleton have Larry, James Marshal has Mountain Roan. Eighteen stalls are engaged.

A one armed Republican candidate in Ohio was said by the Democrats to have lost his arm in a threshing machine. Col. Comly, of the Ohio State Journal was called in as referee and gave this characteristic decision: "The thrashing machine that wounded Van Sickle was located on the top of South Mountain, [illegible] 14, 1861. Did any of the fellows who [illegible] Van Sickle ever feel its teeth?"

MEMORANDA OF DISCOVERY AND INVENTION.

Scientific America did not get to doing much till half the century had gone by, and then she did it twice as fast. In the mere matter of inventions, the world owes her a medal. In 1820, Jordon and Mott invented a stove for burning small coal. In 1825, Henry Burdge devised a wrought iron spike machine, and 10 years later, a self acting horse-shoe machine, producing one a second. In 1832, Samuel F. B. Morse began work on his telegraph instrument, and the same year, it being the one in which Guthrie of Saulkett's Harbor discovered chloroform, Walter Hunt, one of nature's special organizations, doomed to kick among the foundation of things and scare up principles for lesser men to utilize, and who receives the world's smiles because he didn't eat his bread and butter straight, produced the first lock stitched sewing machine, a department of invention in which we have since led the world. The same year (1832,) the first practical automatic printing machine appeared, being the invention of J. G. Howe of Connecticut. The two following years brought the harvesters of Hussey and McCormick. Draper began his study of the spectrum in 1835, and next year, Capt Samuel Colt of, Hartford, Ct., took a patent for his revolving shooting-irons. And four years later, Charles Goodyear built for himself an altar in the heart of every washer woman by discovering how to vulcanize rubber. This year, Erastus Bigelow made his power-loom for weaving ingrain carpets. Later inventions as well as those bef re 1825, like Fulton's steamboat, are good excuses for us to throw our scientific hats as high as any nation represented in Machinery Hall, Philadelphia.

These delightful little verses, from the German, were printed in the Nation some time ago:

A spring in an orchard of cherries,
The print of a girl's bare foot,
And down in the sand beside it
The marks of a nail studded boot.

All is still in the place of their meeting,
Yet my spirit with jealousy burns,
Hears the whispers, the passionate pleading,
The noise as the pail overturns.
